Sunday, Dec. 12, will be Communion Sunday for the members of the Children of Mary Sodality. The regular meeting will be held at St. Mary's academy in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The promoters of the Sacred Heart League held their usual monthly meeting last Sunday. The members of the league went to Holy Communion in a body on the Friday.

Mrs. Mary Judge, with her usual generosity, has donated $100 to St. Anthony's guild.

The pedlars of religious articles have departed from this life, but from the city, for which all should sing a Te Deum.

The ladies of the sister society of the cathedral will hold their regular monthly meeting on Monday at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Al. Whitman, the tenor soloist, of the cathedral choir, has been ill for the past two weeks. He has been greatly missed in the choir.

See and hear "The Brownie Band" at the Grand theatre Wednesday, Dec. 3.
Tickets, 25 cents.

Mr. Al. Whitman was the soloist at the 11 o'clock mass last Sunday.

Requiem high mass was celebrated on Monday at St. Mary's cathedral by Rev. Father Kiley, for the repose of the soul of the late John Holland.

All the young girls of the Junior choir must attend an extra rehearsal on Saturday night at 6 o'clock, at 131 East First South. The next rehearsal will be Sunday morning at 9:30, and the final one Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All are requested to be present.

The members of St. Anthony's Guild met last Tuesday afternoon. The ladies who have been collecting report great success attending their work. The next meeting will be held at the Wilson school, Tuesday, Dec. 22. All members are requested to be present.

Tuesday, Dec. 5, will be the feast of the Immaculate Conception.

All aspirants who expect to be received into the Sodality of the Children quested to attend the rehearsal at St.

at 4 p. m. sharp.

Rev. Father Morrissey will celebrate mass at Bingham next Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Judge, Mrs. Thomas Kearns and W. J. Halloran have taken boxes for the cantata for Wednesday night. Those in charge of the affair expect to sell all the four remaining boxes.

Rehearsal for the young girls of the Junior choir will be held Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, Sunday morning at 9:30, Sunday afternoon at 2:30. All are expected to attend.

The programme will commence at 8 o'clock sharp Wednesday, owing to so many little children taking part.

Edward Fitzpatrick, Frank Williams and Thomas Peeney, violinists, will assist on Wednesday evening.

Miss McEvoy, Miss Morrison, Miss Cuddy, Miss Walsh, Miss Flynn, Miss Harley, Miss Owen, Miss Boltz, Miss Goldwithe and Mrs. Whitman will assist with the children Wednesday night.
The ladies are requested to attend the rehearsal Sunday and Tuesday afternoons, otherwise their assistance on Wednesday will be useless.

The children must be at the Theatre at 7:15 sharp on Wednesday. Parents are requested to send the little ones early.

No one will be allowed behind the scenes until after the programme, except the ladies who have been requested to assist. No exception will be made to this rule, as too much confusion will result if parents and friends come on the stage.

Under no circumstances will floral offerings be presented over the footlights. The reason for this is well known. The children have been previously given many little hearts ached on account of receiving no flowers, so those in charge have decided to allow any to be given. In this way, no child will be slighted, and the children are all too dear and good to be neglected in any way.

For the benefit of the mothers who may not quite understand about the costumes a few more instructions will be given. The wood nymphs and fairies wear fairy dresses; the butterflies wear a chrysanthemum dress over the fairy gown; the flower girls wear fairy gowns with flower baskets; the brownies wear either a brown or green costume, with cut or blouse, and a high collar. The gypsy costume is, of course, understood. Black shoes or slippers, with black hose, are preferred except for the very little girls, who may wear colored slippers and hose if their mothers so desire.

Edward McGurran will have charge of the tickets at the door and will kindly arrange for the ushers. Masters John Sloan and Marvel Brennan will also assist as ushers.

All the children must attend rehearsal on Saturday at 2:30, at the usual place.

last Monday at St. Mary's cathedral by Rev. Father Kiley, for the repose of the soul of the late Michael Halloran.
Mrs. Tremoy, a sister of the deceased, came here a few weeks ago from Philadelphia to see after her brother's remains. She selected the finest lot in Mt. Calvary cemetery, to which the remains were removed. Mrs. Tremoy mourns the death of her loved brother very sincerely and has the sympathy of all in her grief.

banquet given by the employees of the smelter, with whom Sturtevant was very popular.

Bingham Junction last Saturday on a garet, will leave shortly for Ogden, are glad to know that there is every hope for his speedy return to health, after a long and tedious illness. Considering the terrible bereavement he suffered in the death of his estimable wife, four years ago, his illness is readily understood by all his friends, but all

Grand theatre Wednesday, Dec. 3.

Little George Burrows has fully recovered from a serious case of typhoid fever.

The announcement last week of B. C.
McDonough's return to St. Pauline was a mistake. The gentleman intends to remain with us a week or two longer.
We would have you all the time, Mr.
McDonough.

The photograph is becoming quite a "fad" back east. Thousands are entertained nightly in this way. There is a large and beautiful assortment for sale at George Carter's, 325 South West Temple.

A. J. Tarbet came down from American Falls during the past week for a few days' stay.

W. J. Halloran and Frank Wilson have recently returned from St. Pauline, where they examined their mining property.

Perfect in its appointments and charming in every detail was the afternoon reception given on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. B. C. Cosgriff. The affair was most delightful and was enjoyed by about 100 friends of the hostess. The artistic home was arranged in a beautiful and charming way. The hall was entirely in green, tall stately palms and rubber plants forming a beautiful vista leading to the dining room. A pyramid of palms and ferns held an orchestra stationed at the foot of the stair and two tall trees graced either side of the doorway to the dining room.
In the drawing room on the right of the entrance stood the hostess and her sister, Miss G. E. Cosgriff, receiving their guests. This room was entirely in white and green. Tall white chrysanthemums and fragrant carnations filled the vases, and ferns added grace.
In the music room beyond pink carnations were used, the colors blending admirably with the same tints in the conservatory opening to the south of this room. Across the hall the library was dressed in yellow chrysanthemums and asparagus plumosa. In the dining room red was the color carried out, tall vases of American Beauties being used most effectively. The polished woodwork was covered with pieces of exquisite lace, a centerpiece of cluny almost covering the middle. On this a mirror held a tall cut glass vase of American Beauties and cut glass and silver brightened the whole. In this room Mrs. Thomas Kearns poured coffee and Mrs. H. G. McMillan served ice. Assisting them were the Misses Hall, Miss Letta McMillan and Miss Lavelle served punch in the library and Mrs.
Pearshall and Miss Halley assisted in entertaining the guests.

It is an old saying that "six per cent men rule the world." Money out at interest makes a man independently richer than anything else. One should always keep a good interest in leading money. Never lend to a friend, because that leads to the loss of both the money and the friend. The best security in the world is a real estate mortgage on good improved property in a city like Salt Lake. There are firms which make a business of lending money for clients on such securities, and the business has proven very successful and satisfactory for many years. McGurran & Co. of Salt Lake City are the most prominent of this line. The owner of the money gets 6 per cent a year, and holds the security himself. Besides the security of the mortgage, the bond is guaranteed.

OBITUARY.
Hodge.
There should be only intense pity in the hearts of all for the unfortunate Mrs. Aurora Hodge, who died last Monday at the Holy Cross hospital. She was a native of the east and had been of the tragic life, that death has mercifully ended.

She has gone to the Highest Tribune, where she found the mercy and justice that this world does not know.
Let the mantle of charity be drawn about her memory, leaving her to her Maker!

The death of Nicholas W. Hanley, which occurred on Saturday morning, Nov. 25, came as a shock to his many friends and acquaintances in Utah and Montana. The immediate cause of death was miners' consumption and lead poisoning, from which he has been suffering and slowly wasting away for the past six months.

Mr. Hanley was born in Phoenix, Mich., in 1873, and lived in his native town until six years ago, when he took the "gold fever" and came west in search of the precious metal. Those six years were lived principally in Eureka and in Butte, Mont., where his genial spirit made for him many friends, whose sorrow today over his untimely death is deep and sincere.

The deceased leaves a young wife and a 3-year-old baby to mourn his loss, besides an aged mother, three brothers and two sisters. Michael Hanley of Park City and Dan Hanley of Eureka are brothers, while Mrs. D.
C. Harrington and Mrs. G. P. Murphy, both of Eureka, are sisters of the deceased.

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place from the Catholic church at Eureka on Monday morning, Nov. 23, from 10 to 11 a. m., and was glowing tribute to the memory of the dead, and much sympathy to his all sides for the bereaved wife and child, mother, brothers and sisters.
May the "Father of the Widow and Orphan" console and sustain them in their great sorrow in the earnest prayer of all.

Miss Frances McChrystal came from school in Salt Lake last week for a few days' stay at home.

James Murphy, who was a resident of Eureka several years ago, is now from Butte, Mont., with his family, who will spend the winter here.

Mayor-elect Morris has decided to appoint Captain John R. Burbidge, chief of police of Salt Lake City and his administration.

Mrs. T. Galligan, Miss G. and Master L. Condon and Master Tom and Edwin and Miss Helen Kearns.
Mrs. John Bogan had a few pleasant
